Thema: Katherine Mansfield: "Carnation" – Analysis

TMD: 35616

Kurzvorstellung des Materials:

- Katherine Mansfield (1888-1923) was born in New Zealand and later moved to London to be a writer. She is now recognized as one of the pre-eminent writers of the Modernist era. In her writing she often used her memories of New Zealand, her stories are mostly written without a conventional plot.
- The short story "Carnation", presumably written in 1917, was first published in Something Childish and other stories in 1924.
