Erwartungshorizont

Comprehension

Outline the writer's opinion on the usefulness of unions.

Gute Leistung

- in the past unions were very useful to protect employees from being exploited
- they contributed significantly to constitute basic labour rights
- the author's opinion has changed considering the change unions have undergone throughout the 21st century
- today unions only pursue the goal to establish their own position and to gain power
- they restrain companies from gaining prosperity and competitiveness due to high costs that union members produce
- membership deter workers from conducting best performances as a result of a lack of motivation based on a sense of security
- unions create an imbalance between workers and employers thanks to their increasing power position
- non-union workers have equal rights and don't need to pay high union dues
- unions disequilibrate economy and must be incapacitated by the government and immobilised by companies by means of providing equal labour conditions for non-union members

Ausreichende Leistung

- they were useful in the past and founded basic labour rights
- this role has changed in the 21st century
- unions have gained too much power
- only act for their own interests
- are too expensive and hence keep back productivity
- government should control unions
- companies should offer equal rights for non-union members

Formal aspects

- adequate usage of time
- no direct or indirect quotation
- no detailed description
- no interpretation or evaluation

3.1 Write a letter to the editor expressing your opinion on the writer's point of view considering your knowledge about labour rights and working conditions in a globalised world.
