Zu dieser Mappe:

English dialogues bietet Wortmaterial, Sprachstrukturen, Beispieldialoge und Arbeitsblätter zum Erstellen von Dialogen in zwei Differenzierungsstufen. Zu einigen Dialogen ist zudem zusätzliches Material enthalten.

Mithilfe des vorliegenden Materials können Ihre Schüler weitgehend eigenständig Dialoge zu vorentlasteten Themen erstellen. Der jeweils zugehörige Beispieldialog eignet sich als Erwartungshorizont für die Lehrkraft, kann aber auch von lernschwächeren Schülerinnen und Schülern zum Auswendiglernen bzw. „read and look up“ genutzt werden, um auch diesen Lernenden eine angemessene Präsentation und ein Erfolgserlebnis vor der Klasse zu ermöglichen.

Die Materialseiten mit Wortschatz und „useful phrases“ sollten von der Lehrkraft vorab eingeführt werden. Sie dienen als zusätzliche Hilfe für Schüler aller Anforderungsniveaus. Der gleichbleibende Aufbau der Arbeitsblätter gibt den Schülern zudem weitere Sicherheit, sodass schnell positive Ergebnisse erzielt werden können.

Sally and Jack are best friends. They haven't had time to meet in the last couple of weeks because they were busy studying for their final exams. Now every exam is written and they meet to go to the movies.

- Sally: Hi Jack, it's so good to see you again. How are you and how were your exams?
- Jack: Hi Sal, let's not talk about the exams, please. I'm just happy that I'm done with it. How are you anyway?
- Sally: All right. I'm great, thanks for asking. So let's talk about the movie we're going to watch. Do you have any preference?
- Jack: Well, obviously I don't want to see anything belonging to the topic 'school' so something like "Bad Teacher" with Cameron Diaz is no option, even though I really like comedy.
- Sally: That's fine because I don't like Cameron Diaz. So what about an action movie? I really feel like watching something like that because it has a lot of special effects.
- Jack: Sounds good. I like action. So we have three options now. First of all there is 'Transformers – Age of Extinction', then 'World War Z' and finally 'The Expendables 3'.
- Sally: OK. I know the Transformers story with the Autobots and Decepticons. Shia LeBeouf was starring in the first three movies, right? Well and 'World War Z' is probably about an upcoming world war, nothing new. But I've never heard about 'The Expendables'. Because there is a 3 in the title I guess it's another installment of a series of which I haven't seen the first two. So this one isn't an option for me.
- Jack: All right, that's fine. Don't worry, you haven't missed anything. 'Expendables' is a guys' movie with a lot of gunfire and rude jokes. Not a must for an action movie fan like you are. 'World War Z' is an action horror film starred by Brad Pitt who has to save the world from zombie attacks by finding a virus which helps to fight the zombies. Doesn't sound bad to me. Well, and finally there is 'Transformers – Age of Extinction'. Do I guess right that you have seen the first three movies?
- Sally: Yes, you're right and I really liked Shia LeBeouf. I was a little bit disappointed that Megan Fox wasn't starring in 'Transformers – Dark of the Moon', the latest Transformers movie. I really liked her. But in the end Rosie Huntington-Whiteley as Sam's new girlfriend was cool, too.
- Jack: Well, I'm sorry but I have to disappoint you again because Shia LeBeouf isn't starring in the movies anymore.
- Sally: Oh no, honestly? Who is starring now?
- Jack: Do you know Mark Wahlberg? He was starring in 'Ted' and before that in 'Planet of the Apes'.
- Sally: Oh yes, I know him. He was so funny in 'Ted'.
- All right. To be honest, I don't really like Brad Pitt since he is married to Angelina Jolie and I don't want to see an apocalyptic movie which sounds like a copy of 'Resident Evil'. So my first choice would be 'Transformers – Age of Extinction' with Mark Wahlberg because the story is always a good one and I like the special effects.

Jack: Perfect! This would have been my first choice, too. Even though I would have been interested in 'World War Z', too. Let's go and buy the tickets and some snacks. I'm already starving for some popcorn and nachos with cheese dip.

Sally: Yes, let's go and thanks for choosing 'Transformers - Age of Extinction'. I really appreciate that.

Jack: Oh, no worries. I wanted to see both of them, so I'm totally fine with your choice.

Think about:

Try to pronounce naturally and act out the dialogue. Speak slowly.
