Tip: Markiere die Punktlinie mit einem Doppelklick und tippe sofort die Lösung ein.

Ben and his brother Nick are going on holiday to Wales with the youth club (Jugendgruppe). They are busy packing their bags and rucksacks and talking about what they are going to take with them ...

Ben: I'm going to take (1. singular)new East 17 cassettes with me.
Are you going to take (2. singular)new Walkman, Nick?

Nick: No I'm not! My Walkman is staying here! Why don't you take (2. singular)
..... old cassette recorder instead?

Ben: But it isn't (1. singular), Nick. That belongs to Mum. She won't like it if I take (3. singular)cassette recorder all the way to Wales!

Nick: Oh well, perhaps we can ask Dad. He will give us (3. singular) cassette recorder, I'm sure.

Ben: I think I'll take these pencils too.

Nick: Hey, those aren't (2. singular)! Those pencils are(1. singular)!
Give them to me!

Ben: O.K. but I can borrow (2. singular)pencils, can't I?

Nick: Yeah, O.K. I'm going to pack this Monopoly game. We can play in the evenings.

Ben: It doesn't belong to us, Nick. That game belongs to Jane and Mick, our cousins. I don't think they will like it if we take (3. plural)game!

Nick: Never mind, I will have more fun without that Monopoly game. You always win anyway! We'll take (1. plural) old Micky Mouse comics instead.

Topic 13: Adverbs

Your task

Complete the sentences with adverbs. Use the following adjectives. Careful! They are not in the right order.

bad, loud, easy, quiet, hard, good, fast, careful, nervous, nice, slow, bad, quick, good, certain, bad, angry, good.

Markiere die Punktlinie mit einem Doppelklick und tippe sofort die Lösung ein.

“You must work (1)..... , girls and boys”, said Mrs. Jones, the new class teacher. “This year we want to do (2) in the school competition.”

The children looked at each other and grinned. Class Seven B was the worst in the school. They did try to work (3) , but they were never good enough to win a prize.

Jenny looked at Ann and said, “Mrs. J. wants us to get that prize. I don’t think she’ll be lucky this year! Just look at the kids in our class! Tom writes so (4) and Janet always does her work so (5) We don’t have a chance! Ann said to Jenny (6) , “John and Kathy aren’t very good at sports. John can’t run (7) and Kathy is always ill on Sports Day! Mrs. Jones saw the two girls talking to each other and called (8) , “That’s enough, you two! You are not allowed to talk so (9) in class. You will have to behave much (10) ! Now, children, we are going to do a Maths test. You can (11) do it. We will write an English test tomorrow. Now remember to write (12) If you do your work too (13) , you will (14) make mistakes”.

Jenny whispered* to Ann (15) , “Oh dear! We complained so much about the other pupils. We really can’t do Maths (16)”. Ann replied, “I am thinking about the English test tomorrow. The others will do(17) but we will do (18) !!!

* to whisper = flüstern
