3 If-clauses

3.1 If-clause - Present Tense, Main Clause - Future with "shall/will"

Dieser Junge überlegt sich: "Was wird passieren, wenn mein Vater davon hört?" Es wird sicherlich Krach geben.

Willst du Vermutungen anstellen, verwendest du einen If-clause (Bedingungssatz). Er steht im Present Tense. Der Main Clause (Hauptsatz) steht im Future mit "shall/will".

Möglichkeit/Bedingung	► Folge, wenn Bedingung erfüllt
If-clause mit Present Tense	► Main Clause mit Future mit "shall/will"
If my father hears about this	► there will be real trouble.
Wenn mein Vater davon erfährt,	wird es einen bösen Krach geben.

Merke:

If-clause	- Present Tense (kein "will"!)
Main clause	- will-Future: I shall/will, we shall/will ; he, she, it, you, they will, Kurzform ... 'll für alle Personen
